AIDS Care: psychological & socio-medical aspects of AIDS/HIV provides a forum for publishing in one authoritative source research and reports from the many complementary disciplines involved in the AIDS/HIV field. These include, among others: Psychology, Sociology, Epidemiology, Social Work, Anthropology, Social Aspects of Medicine, Nursing, Education, Health Education, Law, Administration, Counselling (including various approaches such as Behavioural Therapy, Psychotherapy, Family Therapy etc.)

AIDS and HIV infection, the planning of services, prevention, and indeed, the fear of AIDS affects many echelons of society ranging from individuals, couples and families through to institutions and communities. A particular aim will be to publish work emanating from many diverse centres worldwide and in so doing address the global impact of AIDS.

Editorial correspondence, including manuscripts for submission and books for review, should be sent to: Dr Lorraine Sherr, Department of Public Health, Royal Free Hospital School of Medicine, Rowland Hill Street, London NW3 2PF, United Kingdom, or to Professor Michael Ross, Center for Health Promotion Research & Development, School of Public Health, University of Texas at Houston, PO Box 20186, Houston, TX 77225, USA.

Please send four copies of your manuscript in the style of the American Psychological Association. Manuscripts can be in three formats: (i) Long articles (not exceeding 10,000 words); (ii) Short reports for rapid publication (not exceeding 2,000 words); (iii) Letters. All references must be submitted in APA style.

All submissions will be refereed blind.

Further details concerning the preparation and submission of articles can be found on the inside back cover of each issue.

Business correspondence, including orders and remittances relating to subscriptions, back numbers, offprints and advertisements, should be addressed to the publishers: Carfax Publishing Company, P.O. Box 25, Abingdon, Oxfordshire OX14 3UE, United Kingdom. Current subscription rates: Institution; EC £160.00, USA & Canada $298.00, Rest of World £172.00; Personal; EC £48.00, USA & Canada $98.00, Rest of World £58.00.
